

File Fac folder of James A. Gallings

FEB 21 1964

The Negro in America

Three Lectures sponsored by:

The committee on Educational Opportunity

Colloquy

Departments of

Political Science

History

Sociology

DR. ROBERT E. MARTIN

PROFESSOR OF GOVERNMENT,
HOWARD UNIVERSITY

Thursday, February 27, 7:30 p.m., OLIN SCIENCE AUDITORIUM —

FROM SERVITUDE TO SLAVERY TO FREEDOM

Indentured servitude, Rise of slavery, the Civil War, Reconstruction, and Evolving Patterns.

Friday, February 28, 10:00 a.m., UNIVERSITY THEATRE —

THE AGE OF REACTION

Subversion of Negro Freedom, Disfranchisement, Second Class Citizenship, Jim Crow, "Separate but Equal."

Saturday, February 29, 11:00 a.m., UNIVERSITY THEATRE —

SOCIAL REVOLUTION

Political Renaissance, Protest, Activist Movement, Black Muslims, the Negro and America's Future.

DR. ROBERT E. MARTIN

Associate Professor of Government, Howard University
Director of the Citizenship Project, Howard University
Director, Howard University Peace Corps Project - Gabon 3
Lecturer, Washington International Center

Education:

D.C. Public Schools
A.B. and A.M., Howard University
Ph.D., University of Chicago

Teaching Experience:

Howard University 1947-
Visiting Professor at Columbia University, 1949-1950, and Atlanta University,
Atlanta, Georgia, Summer, 1957
The A & T College of North Carolina, 1939-1940 and 1943-1947

Honors:

Rosenwald Fellow
Social Science Research Council Fellow
Ford Foundation Fellow
President, Association of Social Science Teachers, 1960-1961
Chairman, Division of the Social Sciences, Howard University, 1960-1961

Government Appointments:

U.S. Office of War Information, Associate Field Representative, 1942-43
Appointed to the D.C. Board of Elections, 1962-

Community Leadership:

Elected First Vice-President, D.C. Congress of Parents & Teachers, 1961-1963
Elected to the Board of Trustees, National Capital Area American Civil Liberties
Union, 1961

Member, President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency, WAY

Member, Board of Trustees, Multiple Sclerosis Society

Author:

Has written extensively in the areas of politics, government, and general education, including:

Negro Disfranchisement in Virginia, Masters Dissertation, published, 1938

"Differential Voting in North and South Carolina," 1946

"The Referendum Process in the Agricultural Adjustment Program of the United States, 1951"

"Negro Economic Life," Encyclopaedia Britannica, 1953

"The Relative Political Status of the Negro in the United States," 1953

"The Practical Political Education of College Students," 1959

"Government and Civil Rights," 1961

"General Education: Its Problems and Promise in Negro Education," 1962

"The Negro as Voter and Office Holder," 1963

"The Negro in American Politics," published in Italy, 1963

Additional:

This past fall Dr. Martin has been in charge of training a Peace Corps group for service in Gabon (Africa). The training took place in the Virgin Islands, and on the Howard Campus.

DR. MARTIN WILL SPEAK AT THE NINE-THIRTY CLASS SUNDAY MORNING HUNT REC ROOM

on

CAN A "LIBERAL DEMOCRACY" MEET THE STRESSES OF POLITICAL REALITY TODAY?

Faculty members interested in having Dr. Martin meet with any classes should arrange in advance with C.A. Office.