

---

BU, Howard Observe Twentieth Anniversary Of Exchange Weekend

Nineteen students from Howard University will arrive on campus this afternoon to join Bucknellians for the 20th anniversary of the institution of the Howard-Bucknell Weekend Exchange. The students will be staying in dorms with their hosts and hostesses.

After dinner this evening, the Howard students will attend the Demie show, Room for the Groom. Afterward, they will be guests at a closed party at Phi Lambda Theta. Saturday morning the visitors will attend classes with their hosts, leaving in the afternoon for Cowan where they will participate in the Goncharoff Conference. An anniversary banquet is planned in honor of the exchange weekend.

Guest speaker at the banquet will be Mr. Howard Hartzell who participated in the exchange 20 years ago. Following the evening session of the conference, a social hour will be held with dancing and entertainment. Sunday morning, the group will attend Nine-thirty Class and church.

---