

---

Bucknell NAACP Chapter To Hold Panel Discussion

On Friday night, April 23, the Bucknell Chapter of NAACP will sponsor a panel called "Students Look at Prejudice," to be held at the Temple Beth Ha-Sholom in Williamsport.

Rabbi Ephraim Einhorn of the Temple is actively concerned with problems of intergroup relations in all areas, and he has asked the NAACP to assemble the panel. The students participating, who represent a variety of races, religions, and points of view, will speak on the problems of discrimination and segregation as they have seen and felt them personally.

Jim Justice, president of NAACP, will moderate the panel. The other members are: Jane Sakamura, Vic Scott, Yvonne Smith, and Mrij Kapur.

---