

Brotherhood Week: February 18 to 25

"... about time we looked at the map"

Susquehanna Valley Group Plans Brotherhood Week

"Brotherhood: Safeguard of Community Life" will be the theme of the round table discussion scheduled by the Susquehanna Valley Brotherhood Committee for Tuesday, February 20 as part of the University's observance of National Brotherhood Week.

The meeting will be held in the Vaughan Literature Auditorium at 8 p. m.

Interracial Speakers

Speakers representing the various faiths and races will participate in the forum. Leaders of the round table will be George K. Hunton, executive secretary, Catholic Interracial Council of New York and editor of Interracial Review; John H. Ives, chairman interracial committee of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the

A Different Kind Of Brotherhood Editorial, Page 2

United States; Samuel Katz, Pennsylvania state director of the American Jewish Committee; and Leo B. Marsh, secretary for program and interracial service, National Council of the Y. M. C. A.

Topics to be included in the discussion are "The Dangers Threatening Freedom and the Democratic Way of Living," "How the Achievement of Brotherhood Will Support These Values," and "Means of Achieving A Greater Measure of Brotherhood in Susquehanna Valley Communities."

Well Qualified

In addition to his work with the Catholic Interracial Council of New York, Mr. Hunton is a lecturer on race relations and community organization at Fordham University and St. John's University. Mr. Ives, a well-known business man of Bridgeport, Conn., is

(Continued on page 8.)

Student Church Slates Talk By Mrs. LeGrand

Mrs. Abram LeGrand, former vice president of the Northern Baptist Convention, will speak before Student Church Sunday in Hunt Living Room at 7:00 p. m.

This will be the first Student Church held this semester under the new program designed to strengthen Student Church by having only three a term.

Mrs. LeGrand, who will speak on the World Student Day of Prayer, was graduated from the State University of Nebraska where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She has taught high school and normal school in Nebraska and Pennsylvania, and was in charge of languages in the education department of the State University of Wyoming.

An expert on the Far East, Mrs. LeGrand has surveyed Baptist missions in China, Japan and the Philippines.

This week's Student Church speaker also has served as president of the Wisconsin Woman's Baptist Mission Society and as vice president of the Interdenominational United Council of Church Women in the United States.

Now residing in West Orange, New Jersey, she has been editor of the Church Women since 1942 and is listed in the 1951 edition of Who's Who in America.

Hunton, Ives Will Speak Here On Interracial Understanding

George K. Hunton
"... noted editor"

John H. Ives
"... Interracial Committee"

(Continued from page 1.)
an active layman in Congregational-Christian churches.

Among his various professional experiences, Mr. Katz has been a college professor, settlement house-worker, U. S. O. director, and Jewish Community Center director. Mr. Marsh serves also as an executive for the national Y. M. C. A. committee on counseling.

Brotherhood Week is sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Its purpose is "to promote justice, understanding, and cooperation among Protestants, Catholics and Jews in order to eliminate inter-group prejudices and to lead to a social order in which the religious ideals of brotherhood and justice shall become the standards of human relationships," according to a proclamation issued recently by Governor John S. Fine.

GUILD PLAYERS GIVE PLAY 'SILVER WHISTLE'

Bucknell students will have an opportunity to see the Lewisburg Guild Player's presentation of a popular Broadway play, "Silver Whistle". A comedy written by Robert McEmroe. It will be presented the 22nd and 23rd of February at the Lewisburg High School.

This play was presented very successfully on Broadway, starring Jose Ferrer. A movie is also being made with Clifton Webb in the lead. "Silver Whistle" is a philosophical drama about old age. It takes place in an old folks' home when a tramp happens to stop in and humorously convinces the inhabitants of the joys of old age.

Professor Hooker, of the English Department, is directing the production and also takes a role in the play.