
Dr. Boddie Entertained Recently At Luncheon

Kappa Chi Lambda entertained Dr. Charles E. Boddie, Minister of the Mount Olivet Baptist Church in Rochester, N. Y., last Wednesday after Chapel services at an informal luncheon held at the University Cafeteria.

This year's group has been active in many discussion and social events, and invites any person interested in the Christian Vocation to become a member and participate in phases of journalistic and social work.

Kappa Chi Lambda is a part of the Christian Faith and Heritage Commission, and through its work promotes the principles of Christian Vocation an campus.
