

HOWARD UNIVERSITY CHOIR CONCERT AT BUCKNELL NAILED AS HUGE SUCCESS

Interracial Feeling
Terrific Program
Enthusiastic Audience
Scholarship Fund Increased

The Howard University choir came to Bucknell, and made for its members on March 5 after singing for an hour to an enthusiastic audience, gave three glorious encores. They were good! Dr. Warner, the director, said that was the best job they had during the tour. Much of this was attributed to the spirit which they were received. Twenty-one fellows and twenty-one girls, members of this Negro organization, stayed in the frat houses and college dorms. They ate in the college dining halls. It is not too much to say that this was the best thing Bucknell has known in the way of interracial good-will messengers. The group made a definite cultural, and indirectly a financial contribution to Bucknell. With the funds made by the B.U. NAACP concert on the concert, the Betty Ann Quinn Scholarship Fund almost reached the limits set for it this year. The Howard University Choir has made its first appearance at B.U. Precedence has been set; they are going to return!

Betty Ann Quinn Scholarship Fund On The Way Up

It is the purpose of the fund to give financial aid to Negro students here. Paint Brushes And Good Food Make For Friendship

Williamsport..Two eager carloads of Bucknell students, along with Dr. Karraker and Mrs. Manning Smith set out for this city on two different evenings this year, intent upon renewing the interior of the large room of the Bethune Douglas Community Center. The results are "not to be sneezed at". There is a presentable-looking room in the Center, and there are a number of newly made friends in the town and college.

Milton...Earlier in the year, another group breazed into the St. Paul's African Methodist Church with a similar idea in mind. Here, another good job was done in the name of brotherly love.

All these workshop periods were turned into friendship periods.

Bucknell Representatives At Convention

Washington..Four students (Betsy Bowler, Shirley Cartmill, Sachiye Myzuki and Jeanette Bowling) and two of the advisors of the B.U. NAACP chapter (Dr. and Mrs. M.A. Smith) drove down from college to spend three days at a national convention here. They saw many members of the Howard choir, as well as spending rewarding hours in discussion of NAACP problems. They returned to school with loads of ideas for the coming year.

Christmas For The Kids

Lewisburg..Local youngsters went home from the Community House in happy clouds after the party held for them by NAACP on Dec.17, 1947. Norm Goodman had been the good Santa dispensing cheer from his bag, while other members of the chapter entertained with stories and games.

Deputation Work Going Full Force

Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania.. Susquehanna, Pennsylvania... The Bucknell chapter of NAACP has been working up interest in surrounding areas by sending out speakers and letters, encouraging evidence of the work done can be seen in the formation of a new chapter at Wilkes-Barre. It is still being hoped that a similar group will eventually form at Susquehanna.

Negro Students Added To Student Body

Bucknell..Three Negro students, two girls and a boy, are now attending classes in this institution. All three are completing their third year this semester. It is the opinion of all that Charles Hammond, Myra Hammond, and Jeanette Bowling have spent these years enriching the lives of other Bucknell students.

There are five other young colored people who are considering B.U. for their college education. Mainly through the efforts of Drs. Karraker and Smith, it seems quite certain that these students will be accepted for the coming year.

Membership Drive In Full Swing

Bucknell..The local drive for new members was launched on April 21, 1948, while Doctor McKinney, president of Store r College was on campus. With material sent from national headquarters, the committee chairman and workers will continue soliciting until May 12.
